

McDaniel seeks info on alleged payday lenders

Posted: Oct 25, 2012 4:51 PM CDT

Updated: Nov 01, 2012 7:23 AM CDT

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - Arkansas Attorney General Dustin McDaniel is seeking information about the practices of 3 companies he says are engaging in payday lending.

McDaniel's office on Thursday filed a lawsuit that asks a Pulaski County circuit judge to order the companies to provide details on their operations.

The suit says Money Mutual LLC, Selling Source LLC and Partner Weekly LLC are all based from the same address in Las Vegas. The companies advertise the availability of what McDaniel says are payday loans, which are illegal in Arkansas. The companies link borrowers with lenders.

McDaniel first sent an investigative demand to the companies in August. He wants a judge to order the companies stop doing business in Arkansas until they comply.

The company hasn't responded yet to the court filing.

Copyright 2012 The Associated Press. All rights reserved. This material may not be published, broadcast, rewritten or redistributed.

Home | News | Weather | Sports | Video | About Us | Newslinks | Community | Follow Us | Fun and Games | Blogs | KATV/FCC Public File

Employment | Contact KATV | Credit Application and Advertising Terms and Conditions | KATV Programming

worldnow

All content © Copyright 2000 - 2013 WorldNow and KATV. All Rights Reserved.
For more information on this site, please read our Privacy Policy and Terms of Service