

SEARCH ALL BLOGS

SEARCH THIS BLOG

GET YOUR OWN BLOG

FLAG?

NEXT BLOG>>

Lynch at Large

This exercise in self-promotion is the online journal of radio icon and Arkansas Democrat-Gazette political columnist, Pat Lynch. That's me. You will find insightful coverage and penetrating commentary about transportation, broadcasting, politics, religion, civil liberties, reality television and whatever else catches my interest. Feel free to drop me a line and listen on the STAN network stations listed in the right hand column and online worldwide at SuperTalkArkansas.com.

Tuesday, February 06, 2007

Payday Lending Showdown! UPDATED

Hank Klein, founder of Arkansas Against Abusive Payday Lenders, and Mark Johnson from AARP were loaded with good information (and even one great laugh) on the pending legislative action on a proposed bill to limit payday lenders to charging the constitutional limit of 17%. It is now available for your "on demand" listening at lyncho.com.

UPDATE - The Morning News of Northwest Arkansas reports on a shocking move to let the payday lending scumbags completely off the hook. You need to read that article and let your lawmakers know that the AARP backed legislation MERELY holds these SNAKES down to the CONSTITUTIONALLY MANDATED 17% level.

"I have concerns that if we totally shut the payday lenders down that there will be a void that may be filled by some of the Internet payday lenders that may be more abusive and harder to regulate," said Rep. Bruce Maloch, D-Magnolia, a banker and attorney.

.. and obviously no Rhodes Scholar. It's pretty darned brilliant not to shoot the robber in your own house because there might be a worse one on the street somewhere. 17% WHAT THE HELL COULD BE WRONG WITH THAT? It's already sky high.

Outrageous. Totally outrageous.

posted by Pat Lynch : 7:08 PM

About Me

Name: Pat Lynch
Location: Little

Rock, Arkansas, United States

Comments: Post a Comment

Links to this post:

Create a Link

<< Home

I have been on the radio in Little Rock, Arkansas since 1983, hosting a daily talk show. These days I am allowed to hang around SuperTalkArkansas.com from 9 to 11 Central Time on weekday mornings. Log on and listen! You can also hear me on the STAN Radio Network around Arkansas. The stations are listed below. My weekly column is in the Arkansas Democrat-Gazette on Mondays. I served on the ACLU National Board for 6 years. Think of me as an unreliable liberal. My great grandfather fled the famine in Ireland and became a Captain in the Confederate army. My dad worked for the GM&O Railroad. I am an orthodox Anglican, a catholic of the Reformation. Make that a Wellers and Diet Rite Cola, please.

View my complete profile

THE PAT LYNCH SHOW is now available to local radio stations on The Super Talk Arkansas Network. Ask your hometown broadcaster to carry it "live" weekday mornings 9 to 11.

The Pat Lynch Show is back on Little Rock radio at KDXE AM 1380.

The Pat Lynch Show
Super Talk Arkansas Network
WAI-Radio.com Little Rock
KNBY 1280 AM Newport
KSMD 99.1 FM Searcy
KWCK 1300 AM Searcy
KAPZ 710 AM Bald Knob
KAWW 1370 AM Heber Springs
WDSK 1410 AM Cleveland, Ms./Dumas

WRKG 95.3 FM Greenville, Ms./Lake Village

Links

Lyncho's Home Page
SuperTalkArkansas.com
Lynch's Column Archive
Roby Brock Talk Business
Arkansas Times Daily Blog