

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF CLARK COUNTY, ARKANSAS
Civil Division

BRENDA MCGINNIS, individually and o/b/o a class of similarly situated persons

PLAINTIFF

VS.

CASE NO. CV 2007-32

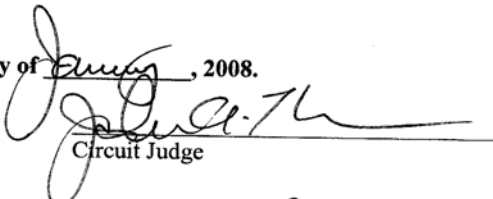

ADVANCE AMERICA SERVICING
OF ARKANSAS, INC., d/b/a
ADVANCE AMERICA CASH ADVANCE;
ADVANCE AMERICA, CASH ADVANCE
CENTERS OF ARKANSAS, INC.; and ADVANCE AMERICA, CASH ADVANCE CENTERS, INC.

DEFENDANTS

ORDER

On the 20th day of November, 2007, came before this Court Defendants' Motion to Compel Arbitration. Plaintiff appeared by and through her attorneys Chris A. Averitt, Blake Batson and Dan Turner. Defendants appeared by and through their attorneys Lewis S. Weiner, Phillip E. Stano and Claire Shows Hancock. After having considered the pleadings, the exhibits, the arguments of counsel, and the entire file herein, and for all of the reasons stated from the bench, this Court hereby rules as follows: The arbitration agreement at issue lacks the essential element of mutuality and is, therefore, invalid and unenforceable. As such, Defendants' Motion to Compel Arbitration is hereby denied.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 16 day of January, 2008.

Circuit Judge

Order Prepared by:

Counsel for Plaintiffs

File for Record 16th day of Jan at 3:30 PM Clock
By R. Ross Penn. R. Ross, Circuit Clerk
By Spawens Deputy Clerk